ORGANIZATIONAL ANNOUNCEMENT

Diskriter Inc. Announces Staff Addition HIM Solutions Consultant

PITTSBURGH, PA. – OCTOBER 6, 2011 - Diskriter announced today that Victor Accurso has joined Diskriter as HIM Solutions Consultant. Mr. Accurso will manage a sales territory that includes Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana and Arkansas.

Victor comes to Diskriter with more than 15 years of experience in healthcare information technology sales. A winner of many sales awards, Accurso has a proven track record of expertise in selling to multiple levels in hospitals, including IT, Clinical and C-Level buying influences.

In his most recent position as Director of Sales for a Florida company, Accurso marketed and sold a subscription-based license status verification and compliance management system to hospitals, clinics and other healthcare facilities. He also assisted with product strategy and development, and executed marketing programs to increase sales.

Accurso also has experience in driving sales of healthcare IT solutions built around patient access and identity management, enterprise master patient index, patient care, revenue cycle management and health information management, as well as digital dictation systems, transcription software solutions, and transcription services.

A resident of Orlando, Fla., Accurso is a member of American Health Information Management Association, Healthcare Information Management Systems Society, Central Florida HIMSS Chapter, South Florida HIMSS Chapter, and Florida Association of Medical Staff Services.

Diskriter is a Pennsylvania-based Health Information Management (HIM) Services provider that has been serving clients nationally for over 63 years. Diskriter provides a diversified range of services that include Medical Transcription, Speech Recognition, Coding and Compliance Auditing (Acute Care, Rehab, LTAC), ICD-10 Coding Education and Training, RAC Readiness and HIM Interim Management.
